Description

Savage Hercluoids Background

During the Second Age of War on Amzot, when the Traxian Empire was engaged in a massive war with the Kyanites, Project Hercules was born. Tara was a super soldier created in this project. Unfortunately, the Traxians were defeated before the Hercules Project was complete. Tara, along with his family and a series of war beasts dubbed the Herculoids were the only creatures to escape from the facility before it was destroyed.

Now Tara, her family and the Herculoids defend all those that look to conquer the once great planet of Amzot. She helps her husband fend off any attempt to bring war technology to the world. After two ages of horrific war, Zandor and his allies have sworn to keep all war technology off Amzot.
